PARADOR DE
ARCOS DE LA FRONTERA

Parador de Arcos de la Frontera Surroundings

Ready?

The white houses of Arcos will surprise you, fitted together like puzzle pieces along the top and slopes of a reddish rocky crag. In just a few minutes, you can climb from the banks of the Guadalete River up almost 200 meters to the base of the lovely Castillo de los Duques (Dukes' Castle), at a dizzying height above the river, offering amazing panoramic views of the surrounding landscape. Steep cobbled streets lead to the old quarter, which has been declared a National Historic/Artistic Monument and is considered one of the loveliest in Andalusia. Also worth a visit are San Pedro Church and Santa María de la Asunción Church, both of which date from the 15th century.

This is also a rich wine-producing region. You can visit a number of wineries and vineyard, sampling exquisite vintages. Lovers of sports, particularly adventure sports, should know that the town's natural surroundings are perfect for spelunking, hiking, canyon rappelling, hang-gliding, paragliding and cycling tourism. Another excellent choice is a visit to Arcos Lake, where canoes and sailboats share the water with the birds who come to spend the winter here.

In Arcos de la Frontera you will experience the harmony of a peaceful village, where people take a seat in the shade on the hot summer afternoons, and the vitality of a one-of-a-kind tourist destination. You are sure never to forget your experience at our Parador.

Gastronomic mouthfuls

The Marmitia restaurants offer an innovative menu with a wide variety of dishes so that diners can choose their own combination of starter, main and dessert.

Monumental and historic hotels

There are places that become travel destinations through which their history can be discovered: castles, palaces, and old monasteries that receive you today with all the comforts that only Paradores know how to offer, but without losing the essence that made them part of our history.

Hotels to enjoy the coast or nature

Close your eyes and imagine a place far away from the hustle and bustle of daily life. In a landscape surrounded by evergreen mountains, a terrace with sea views, a viewing point from which to observe the flight of the birds over a lake. It is something you have within reach but still haven't discovered, because this trip is closer than you think. That getaway to nature is at Paradores.

Urban hotels at the heart of the city

The luxury and the service of Paradores in an urban setting is what you're looking for. Civia arose to offer a hotel where you don't feel like you're just passing through. The Civia collection is made up of Paradores located in the city or nearby where you'll find everything you need, whatever the reason for your visit.
