Ready?

Our hotel is comfortable and many of the guest rooms offer beautiful views of the mountains and river. Wood is an ever-present element, providing the sensation of seclusion and warmth, enhanced by the fire in the fireplace. This is an idyllic environment offering a wide range of sports activities. It is ideal for excursions, but is also the perfect setting for a romantic mountain getaway or to experience Carnival in Bielsa, a fascinating festival that has preserved pre-Christian rituals almost intact.

This mountain village is truly beautiful. Its country houses and treasures such as the Romanesque Nuestra Señora de Pineta Chapel make the old quarter a real delight. By the Parador there is an entrance to Ordesa y Monte Perdido National Park, which has been declared a World Heritage Site. It is a treasure chest of spectacular craggy peaks, beautiful waterfalls, fairytale pine woods and an eternal white blanket on the mountain tops.

Nature in its purest form offers a number of options for sports. The rivers make their way through rocky gorges, providing a paradise for fans of canyoning and canyon rappelling. Mountain biking or hiking trails are also sure to seem an excellent choice. The scenery along the Cinca River waterfall trail and the trail to Lake Marboré is spectacular.

Here, each season of the year paints a different canvas: green, gold, red, white ... all of them equally spectacular, none of them forgettable. Postcard perfect views will remain in your mind's eye, along with pleasant memories of the Parador de Bielsa.

- Marian Sanctuary of Lourdes

In religious language, a sanctuary is a building or site of pilgrimage. In this sense, the Grotto and Basilica of the Immaculate Conception (Upper Basilica), built by Mgr. Laurence, the bishop at the time of the apparitions, constitute the original sanctuary. Subsequently, the entire complex of churches and buildings centered on the grotto came to be called the Sanctuary of Our Lady of Lourdes.

- Balnea leisure center

Built in 2000, this spa therapy center is fed by natural thermal waters at a temperature of 30–33°C that enter through two openings in the upper part of the Saoussas Baths at a depth of 160 and 600 m. This water is enriched by oligoelements along its subterranean route through the heart of the Pyrenean massif and channeled directly to Balnea.
