PARADOR DE
CALAHORRA

Parador de Calahorra Surroundings

Ready?

Calahorra is also a wine-producing region. Not much more than fifteen minutes from the hotel, you can visit the first Rioja Baja Wine Museum, located in Nuestra Señora del Portal Chapel in Aldeanueva del Ebro, or tour fantastic wineries where they make exquisite Riojas.

The historic town center is well worth a visit. You can take a walk through town and marvel at the cathedral; the Muslim old quarter and the Roman arch; San Andrés Church; Raso Square, once the Roman forum; the municipal museum, which houses the famous bust known as Dama Calagurritana; and the Carmelite convent that is home to an amazing Christ by baroque sculptor Gregorio Fernández.

The Parador Kitchen

Pears in wine, asparagus, peppers, cauliflower and bacalao a la riojana (cod in pepper and tomato sauce) are other dishes you will want to try at the Parador de Calahorra: exquisitely prepared delights for the palate that highlight the flavor of the natural ingredients, creating a perfect dining experience.

Calahorra holds its Vegetable Days celebration the last week of April. If you visit the Parador during this period, the cuisine will not fail to impress.

We present our new gastronomic spaces

Pampered Senses

Especia restaurants are Paradores' classic restaurants where we offer a traditional menu made up of starters, meat courses, fish courses and desserts.

The perfect homage

Tamizia restaurants are multifunctional spaces that follow current trends in gastronomy.

Gastronomic mouthfuls

The Marmitia restaurants offer an innovative menu with a wide variety of dishes so that diners can choose their own combination of starter, main and dessert.

Monumental and historic hotels

There are places that become travel destinations through which their history can be discovered: castles, palaces, and old monasteries that receive you today with all the comforts that only Paradores know how to offer, but without losing the essence that made them part of our history.

Hotels to enjoy the coast or nature

Close your eyes and imagine a place far away from the hustle and bustle of daily life. In a landscape surrounded by evergreen mountains, a terrace with sea views, a viewing point from which to observe the flight of the birds over a lake. It is something you have within reach but still haven't discovered, because this trip is closer than you think. That getaway to nature is at Paradores.

Urban hotels at the heart of the city

The luxury and the service of Paradores in an urban setting is what you're looking for. Civia arose to offer a hotel where you don't feel like you're just passing through. The Civia collection is made up of Paradores located in the city or nearby where you'll find everything you need, whatever the reason for your visit.
