PARADOR DE
CEUTA

Parador de Ceuta Surroundings

Ready?

Ceuta lies between the Mediterranean and the Atlantic, between Europe and Africa. It offers sun and sea, exoticism and culture, along with an enviable climate. A walk through the city will take you past its squares and monuments, the wonderful Royal Walls with their saltwater fosse (unique in the world), the Merinidas Walls and the exotic Arab baths.

Because of its special taxation system, Ceuta offers the opportunity to purchase high quality items at excellent prices. If you love perfumes and jewelery, you will find an extensive selection here.

The nightlife in the bars and discos is as exotic as the city itself. The illumination of walls and monuments invites you to experience the warm Ceuta nights virtually year round.

Services and facilities

The Parador Kitchen

Nearby Morocco and Andalusia have left their mark on Ceuta's cooking with very special flavors, aromas and colors. Our elaborate confectionery is the perfect complement to our tapas and other dishes, including delicious trenzas de Agustina, made from a dough of flour, sugar, eggs, oil, and lemon, orange and mandarin peels, and a glass of anisette. Neighboring Morocco also provides a wide variety of fruits with excellent flavors and juices, the perfect complement to the warm local climate.

Discover the local area

The beautiful city of Ceuta is lapped by the waters of both the Mediterranean Sea and the Atlantic Ocean. It is accessible by road, sea and air. The climate is Mediterranean, with mild winters and summers, making the city a pleasant place to visit virtually any time of year. If you're not sure about the best time to plan your trip, you might want to consider the dates of some of the most important festivals. Carnival, Holy Week with the parade of the Spanish Legion, feast day of St. Anthony on June 13, feast day of the Virgin of Africa on August 5 and the accompanying weeklong festival.

10 must-visit sites

- Cathedral
- Our Lady of Africa Shrine

What to do in the area

Ceuta has it all: beaches, nature, culture and gastronomy. Whatever your vacation preferences, Ceuta has something for you. Stroll through the city, enjoying the delightful squares, busts and sculptures, monuments, city walls and more. San Amaro Park is definitely on the must-see list.

Expert recommendations

- Shopping in Ceuta

Ceuta is a perfect place to do a bit of shopping, as the city has significantly lower taxes on goods, with the top tax rate being 10% rather than 21%. This means better prices on jewelry, spirits, tobacco products and electronics.

- El Chorrillo, Calamocarro, Benzu, San Amaro, Benítez and La Ribera beaches

Highlights along the 21 km coastline, which offers fine sand beaches and warm waters, include El Chorrillo and La Ribera beaches. Both can be reached on foot by stairs located just 50 meters from the Parador. They offer a gorgeous view of the bay and the Moroccan coast.

- Salted mackerel and flying fish

Its location at the convergence of two seas gives Ceuta a wealth of fantastic fish and seafood. It is therefore not surprising that one of its most important dishes is prepared using salted products dried by the local winds.

- Ceuta Nautical Center

This center offers activities such as scuba diving, snorkeling, kayaking, boat tours, sport fishing, and more.

We present our new gastronomic spaces

Pampered Senses

Especia restaurants are Paradores' classic restaurants where we offer a traditional menu made up of starters, meat courses, fish courses and desserts.

The perfect homage

Tamizia restaurants are multifunctional spaces that follow current trends in gastronomy.

Gastronomic mouthfuls

The Marmitia restaurants offer an innovative menu with a wide variety of dishes so that diners can choose their own combination of starter, main and dessert.

Monumental and historic hotels

There are places that become travel destinations through which their history can be discovered: castles, palaces, and old monasteries that receive you today with all the comforts that only Paradores know how to offer, but without losing the essence that made them part of our history.

Hotels to enjoy the coast or nature

Close your eyes and imagine a place far away from the hustle and bustle of daily life. In a landscape surrounded by evergreen mountains, a terrace with sea views, a viewing point from which to observe the flight of the birds over a lake. It is something you have within reach but still haven't discovered, because this trip is closer than you think. That getaway to nature is at Paradores.

Urban hotels at the heart of the city

The luxury and the service of Paradores in an urban setting is what you're looking for. Civia arose to offer a hotel where you don't feel like you're just passing through. The Civia collection is made up of Paradores located in the city or nearby where you'll find everything you need, whatever the reason for your visit.
