Parador de Jaén Surroundings

Ready?

Jaén's Barrio Antiguo (Old Quarter) has preserved the vestiges of a spectacular city. Nuestra Señora de la Asunción Cathedral; the Arab baths, the largest and most important in Europe; the Provincial Fine Arts Museum; and San Lorenzo Arch, recently declared a National Monument, are just some of the sights well worth visiting.

A visit to the surrounding area is an excellent option, allowing you to explore the Sierra de Cazorla mountains and Sierra de Segura region, with their exceptional nature reserves. Olive groves and the Guadalquivir River, which flows through this land, add special appeal to a place where the characteristic light of Andalusia never fails to make its presence felt.

The Parador Kitchen

Soups and stews are a staple at the Parador: we prepare the popular ajo blanco, a soup made with garlic, oil, almonds and bread, and a true delight for your palate. And don't miss out on game dishes such as partridge terrine and Baños-style venison. You will notice the Moorish influence on our confectionery in ingredients such as dried fruit, almonds and olive oil. Choices include exquisite convent sweets, puff pastries and sponge cakes. We prepare a range of dining options to astonish you. Come discover them.

We present our new gastronomic spaces

Pampered Senses

Especia restaurants are Paradores' classic restaurants where we offer a traditional menu made up of starters, meat courses, fish courses and desserts.

The perfect homage

Tamizia restaurants are multifunctional spaces that follow current trends in gastronomy.

Gastronomic mouthfuls

The Marmitia restaurants offer an innovative menu with a wide variety of dishes so that diners can choose their own combination of starter, main and dessert.

Monumental and historic hotels

There are places that become travel destinations through which their history can be discovered: castles, palaces, and old monasteries that receive you today with all the comforts that only Paradores know how to offer, but without losing the essence that made them part of our history.

Hotels to enjoy the coast or nature

Close your eyes and imagine a place far away from the hustle and bustle of daily life. In a landscape surrounded by evergreen mountains, a terrace with sea views, a viewing point from which to observe the flight of the birds over a lake. It is something you have within reach but still haven't discovered, because this trip is closer than you think. That getaway to nature is at Paradores.

Urban hotels at the heart of the city

The luxury and the service of Paradores in an urban setting is what you're looking for. Civia arose to offer a hotel where you don't feel like you're just passing through. The Civia collection is made up of Paradores located in the city or nearby where you'll find everything you need, whatever the reason for your visit.
