Enjoy the serenity of the Alentejo Region within the atmosphere of secrecy of Alvito Castle.

IN

The Pousada de Alvito lies within the castle of this village of the Alentejo Region, a 15th century construction that was once property of the Baron of Alvito.

The historical Pousada reflects the combined influences of military architecture, as it was a fortress, and its character as a palatial residence, with Islamic, Gothic and "Manueline" styles influences. The result of these different styles is so interesting, that the building has been classified a National Monument since 1910.

The design of the bucolic gardens of the Alvito Castle combines the spacious agricultural areas with the leisure corners of Medieval Castles. The Pousada de Alvito is the ideal place to escape from the urban stress and to spend a few days with your partner or to celebrate the romantic wedding dream. Alternatively this is also the ideal venue to gather your employees to incentive and inspire them. Come and discover this really special place

When the sunset melts into the lights of the castle the cloister will be inviting you to dinner.
