A majestic hill of a walled medieval borough a few kilometers away from Fátima – here is where you will find the Pousada de Ourém. The junction of the old houses with the former 15th century Misericórdias Hospital has given rise to this Historical Pousada in stone, iron and with arc elevations.

In perfect harmony with the landscape of a natural viewpoint over the Ribeira de Seiça and the plateau of the Fátima Sanctuary, this is the ideal scenery for a few days of good rest.

The Castle's walls frame the skyline.

Fátima was in the past the setting of apparitions full of faith.

OUT

Abdegas – this was the name of the county now known as Ourém. The change of name was due to the expulsion of the Muslim population in 1136 in the reign of King Afonso Henriques. Ourém seduces with its history, faith, nature, gastronomy and hospitality. It was here, in the Iria Cove, where the three little shepherds claimed to have seen Our Lady of Fátima, in the same spot where today one of the world's most visited and venerated sanctuaries lies. Every year, the Sanctuary receives more than five million visitors – tourists, devotees and pilgrims – from all over the world. Come visit it, too.

DESCUBRA

The challenge in Ourém is to choose what to see first.

With its large historical, cultural and natural wealth, there are many options. Places like museums, monasteries, churches, gardens and parks and the architectonic beauty of the villages are only a few examples of what the region offers.

The "Batalha de Aljubarrota" Museum (Battle of Aljubarrota), the Sanctuary of Fátima, or the Castle of Ourém and even the Agroal River Beach are mandatory options. All the rest will be a discovery that promises to be a surprise.
